

This award marks the culmination of an exceptional 18 months for our network, and I am delighted to accept this award on behalf of the more than 50,000 people in our team. This achievement is a testament to all their dedication and exceptional efforts, and a recognition from the judges of our market leading financial growth and strategic innovation. Many congratulations to our global team and thank you to everyone who made it possible.

Francesca Lagerberg,
CEO, Baker Tilly International